

Upcoming Job Order Contracting Bid Opportunity with Cleveland Clinic Foundation

Job Order Contracting (JOC) is an indefinite delivery, indefinite quantity (IDIQ) construction procurement process that allows many projects to be completed through a competitively awarded contract. This single-solicitation process enables projects to start faster and creates partnerships between project owners and awarded contractors.

Contract Opportunities Available:

- Roofing
- Concrete
- Painting
- Flooring

Interested in learning more?

Informational Meetings – Learn more about the JOC program with Cleveland Clinic, and how you can bid to become part of the program at one of the following Informational Sessions. Space is limited so registration is required. Each person attending will need to register.

Location: Cleveland Clinic HealthSpace Building
Stanley Shalon Zielony Plaza
8911 Euclid Ave. Cleveland, OH 44195

Date: August 30, 2022 - 9:00 AM OR 2:00 PM – Register here

If you have questions or want additional information, contact Marty Beckler at 440-225-3282 or m.beckler@gordian.com.

Learn More | How to Become a Job Order Contracting Contractor